2. CONDUCT OF THE PROJECT

- 2.1 The Project will begin on the Effective Date and will continue for the term of the Project Period or until any later date agreed in writing between the parties, or until this Agreement is terminated in accordance with clause 8 or 9. If this Agreement is entered into after the Effective Date, it will apply retrospectively to work carried out in relation to the Project on or after the Effective Date.
- 2.2 The University will carry out the tasks allotted to it in Schedule 1, and will provide the human resources, materials, facilities and equipment that are designated as its responsibility in Schedule 1. The Project will be carried on under the direction and supervision of the Principal Investigator. The Project will be carried out at the Location.
- 2.3 The University will provide the Sponsor with e-mail copies of the data as generated and a report at the conclusion of the Project together with a copy of all of the Results.
- 2.4 The University makes no warranties, express or implied, as to any matter whatsoever including, without limitation, the condition of the work or any invention(s), result(s), or product(s), whether tangible or intangible, conceived, discovered, or developed under this Agreement; or the ownership, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose of the work described herein or any such invention or product; nor does the University guarantee a successful outcome.
- 2.5 The University warrants to the Sponsor that the University has full power and authority under its constitution, and has taken all necessary actions and obtained all authorisations, licences, consents and approvals, to allow it to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the Project.
- 2.6 The University delegates management of this Agreement to the Vice-President (Research) or his/her designate; any amendment to its terms must be authorized by the Vice-President (Research) or his/her designate in writing. The Principal Investigator will have supervision of the work and will have authority to approve expenditures under this Agreement.

3. FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTION AND EXTERNAL FUNDING

- 3.1 The University will keep complete and accurate accounts of its expenditure on the Project. The Sponsor will pay the Financial Contribution to the University in accordance with Schedule 1 within 30 days after receipt by the Sponsor of any invoice.

- 3.2 Unless specified in Schedule 1, all amounts payable to the University under this Agreement are exclusive of Goods and Services Tax, Provincial Sales Tax or any similar tax which the Sponsor will pay at the rate from time to time prescribed by law.
- 3.3 If the Sponsor fails to make any payment due to the University under this Agreement, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the University, the University may charge interest (both before and after any judgment) on the amount outstanding, on a daily basis at the rate of three per cent per annum above the University's Bank's (currently Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce) current lending rate from time to time in force. That interest will be calculated from the date for payment specified in this Agreement or related invoice to the actual date of payment, both dates inclusive, and will be compounded quarterly. The Sponsor will pay that interest to the University on demand.
- 3.4 The University will own all equipment purchased or constructed by it, or for it, using the Financial Contribution or any External Funding.
- 3.5 If the Project receives any External Funding each of the parties will comply with the terms of that External Funding.

4. USE AND EXPLOITATION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 4.1 This Agreement does not affect the ownership of any Intellectual Property in any Background or in any other technology, design, work, invention, software, data, technique, Know-how, or materials that are not Results. The Intellectual Property in them will remain the property of the party that contributes them to the Project (or its licensors) and any use of such Background may be subject to a separate license agreement. No licence to use any Intellectual Property is granted or implied by this Agreement except the rights expressly granted in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Intellectual Property and Know-How relating to the Principal Investigator's or University's implementation of testing models currently the property of the University shall remain the sole property of the University and no licence to use such Intellectual Property or Know-How is granted or implied by this Agreement.
- 4.2 Each Party grants the other a royalty-free, non-exclusive licence to use its Background for the purpose of carrying out the Project, but for no other purpose. Neither party may grant any sub-licence to use the other's Background except that the Sponsor may allow its Group Companies and any person working for or on behalf of the Sponsor or any Group Company to use the University's Background for the purpose of carrying out the Project.
- 4.3 Ownership and exploitation of Results shall be in accordance with the terms of Schedule 2 of this Agreement.

- 4.4 Notwithstanding the terms provided in Schedule 2, the Sponsor grants to the University or the University retains the right (as applicable) to use the Results for the University's own internal, non-commercial teaching and research purposes.

5. ACADEMIC PUBLICATION

- 5.1 University shall not be restricted from making any publications, including without limitation, presenting at conferences, symposia or professional meetings, or from publishing in abstracts, journals, theses, or dissertations, or otherwise, whether in printed or in electronic media, the methods and the results of the Research Project, except where such publication or presentation would result in the premature public disclosure of commercializeable intellectual property or breach the confidentiality terms of clause 6 of this Agreement.
- 5.2 The University shall submit to the Sponsor, an outline and associated abstract of any research results, which it intends to publish or present, for review at least thirty (30) days in advance of such proposed publication or presentation. The Sponsor shall complete the review within thirty (30) days from its receipt of the proposed publication or presentation. If the Sponsor does not object in writing to such publication or presentation within thirty (30) days of receipt thereof, it shall be deemed to have agreed to the disclosure and the University shall be free to proceed.
- 5.3 During the review period, the Sponsor may object to such proposed publication or presentation either because there is an inadvertent disclosure of the Sponsor's confidential information contained in the proposed publication or presentation, or because there is commercializeable subject matter which requires appropriate legal protection. If the Sponsor objects because there would be an inadvertent disclosure of the Sponsor's confidential information, the University agrees to remove such confidential information. If the Sponsor objects because of the potential for protectable subject matter, the University agrees to delay publication for up to a maximum of six (6) months for the purposes of obtaining patent or other intellectual property protection. If a graduate student's thesis contains subject matter that requires protection, the University retains the right to have graduate student theses reviewed and defended for the sole purpose of academic evaluation in accordance with the University's established procedures. This Agreement shall not impose any delays on the defence of a student's thesis.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 6.1 Subject to clause 5, neither party will, either during the Project Period or for 3 years after the end of the Project Period, disclose to any third party, nor use for any purpose except carrying out the Project, any of the other party's Confidential Information.
- 6.2 Neither party will be in breach of any obligation to keep any Background, Results or other information confidential or not to disclose it to any other party to the extent that it:

- 6.2.1 is known to the party making the disclosure before its receipt from the other party, and not already subject to any obligation of confidentiality to the other party;
- 6.2.2 is or becomes publicly known without any breach of this Agreement or any other undertaking to keep it confidential;
- 6.2.3 has been obtained by the party making the disclosure from a third party in circumstances where the party making the disclosure has no reason to believe that there has been a breach of an obligation of confidentiality owed to the other party;
- 6.2.4 has been independently developed by the party making the disclosure;
- 6.2.5 is disclosed pursuant to the requirement of any law or regulation (provided, in the case of a disclosure under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.F.31 (the "Act") none of the exceptions to that Act applies to the information disclosed) or the order of any Court of competent jurisdiction, and the party required to make that disclosure has informed the other of the requirement and the information required to be disclosed; or
- 6.2.6 is approved for release in writing by an authorised representative of the other party.
- 6.3 The University will not be in breach of any obligation to keep any of the Sponsor's Background that is not Confidential Information, or any Results, or other information, confidential or not to disclose them to any third party, by Publishing any of the same if the University has followed the procedure in clause 5.2 and has received no Confidentiality Notice within the period stated in that clause.
- 6.4 The Sponsor will not be in breach of any obligation to keep any of the University's Background, or other information, confidential or not to disclose them to any third party, by making them available to any Group Company, or any person working for or on behalf of the Sponsor or a Group Company, who needs to know the same in order to exercise the rights granted in this Agreement, provided they are not used except as expressly permitted by this Agreement and the recipient undertakes to keep that Background or information confidential.
- 6.5 If the University receives a request under the Act to disclose any information that, under this Agreement, is the Sponsor's Confidential Information, it will notify the Sponsor and will consult with the Sponsor. The Sponsor will respond to the University within 10 days after receiving the University's notice if that notice requests the Sponsor to provide information to assist the University to determine whether or not an exemption to the Act applies to the information requested under that Act.

6.6 Neither the University nor the Sponsor will use the other's name or logo in any press release or product advertising, or for any other promotional purpose, without first obtaining the other's written consent; except that the University may identify the sums received from the Sponsor in the University's Annual Report and similar publications.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

7.1 Neither of the parties makes any representation or gives any warranty to the other that any advice or information given by it or any of its employees or students who work on the Project, or the content or use of any Results, Background or materials, works or information provided in connection with the Project, will not constitute or result in any infringement of third-party rights.

7.2 Except under the indemnity in clause 7.3, and subject to clause 7.6, neither party accepts any responsibility for any use which may be made by the other party of any Results, nor for any reliance which may be placed by that other party on any Results, nor for advice or information given in connection with any Results.

7.3 The Sponsor will indemnify the University, the Principal Investigator and every other employee and student of the University (the "Indemnified Parties"), and keep them fully and effectively indemnified, against each and every claim made against any of the Indemnified Parties as a result of the Sponsor's use of any of the Results or any materials, works or information received from them pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, provided that the Indemnified Party must:

7.3.1 promptly notify the Sponsor of details of the claim;

7.3.2 not make any admission in relation to the claim;

7.3.3 allow the Sponsor to have the conduct of the defence or settlement of the claim; and

7.3.4 give the Sponsor all reasonable assistance, at the Sponsor's expense, in dealing with the claim.

The indemnity in this clause will not apply to the extent that the claim arises as a result of the Indemnified Party's negligence, breach of clause 6 or the deliberate breach of this Agreement.

7.4 Subject to clause 7.6, and except under the indemnity in clause 7.3, the liability of either party to the other for any breach of this Agreement, any negligence or arising in any other way out of the subject matter of this Agreement, the Project and the Results, will not extend to any indirect damages or losses, or any loss of profits, loss of revenue, loss of data, loss of contracts or opportunity, whether direct or indirect, even if the party bringing the claim has advised the other of the possibility of those losses, or if they were within the other party's contemplation.

- 7.5 Subject to clause 7.6, and except under the indemnity in clause 7.3, the aggregate liability of each party to the other for all and any breaches of this Agreement, any negligence or arising in any other way out of the subject matter of this Agreement, the Project and the Results, will not exceed the total of the Financial Contribution.
- 7.6 Nothing in this Agreement limits or excludes either party's liability for:
- 7.6.1 death or personal injury;
  - 7.6.2 any fraud or for any sort of liability that, by law, cannot be limited or excluded; or
  - 7.6.3 any loss or damage caused by a deliberate breach of clause 6.
- 7.7 The express undertakings and warranties given by the parties in this Agreement are in lieu of all other warranties, conditions, terms, undertakings and obligations, whether express or implied by statute, common law, custom, trade usage, course of dealing or in any other way. All of these are excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law.

8. FORCE MAJEURE

If the performance by either party of any of its obligations under this Agreement (except a payment obligation) is delayed or prevented by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, that party will not be in breach of this Agreement because of that delay in performance. However, if the delay in performance is more than 6 months, the other party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other party.

9. TERMINATION

- 9.1 Either party may terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by giving notice to the other party if:
- 9.1.1 the other party is in breach of any provision of this Agreement and (if it is capable of remedy) the breach has not been remedied within 90 days after receipt of written notice specifying the breach and requiring its remedy; or
  - 9.1.2 the other party becomes insolvent, or if an order is made or a resolution is passed for its winding up (except voluntarily for the purpose of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction), or if an administrator, administrative receiver or receiver is appointed over the whole or any part of the other party's assets, or if the other party makes any arrangement with its creditors.

9.2 Clauses 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9.3 and 10 will survive the expiry of the Project Period or the termination of this Agreement for any reason and will continue indefinitely. Clause 6 will survive the expiry of the Project Period or the termination of this Agreement for its prescribed period.

9.3 On the termination of this Agreement, the Sponsor will pay the University for all work done prior to termination including any non-cancellable commitments. If the Sponsor has paid any of the Financial Contribution in advance and, on the early termination in accordance with this Section 9, the whole of that contribution has not been used by the University, the University will return to the Sponsor the unused portion of that contribution. If this Agreement is terminated for any reason, the Sponsor will pay to the University the reasonable cost of performing any of the work that has been performed up to the date of termination and any other costs directly resulting from such termination including obligations under the Ontario Employment Standards Act.

10. GENERAL

10.1 Notices: Any notice to be given under this Agreement must be in writing, may be delivered to the other party or parties by any of the methods set out in the left hand column below, and will be deemed to be received on the corresponding day set out in the right hand column:

| Method of service                                                                                                          | Deemed day of receipt                                                                                        |

- 10.2 Headings: The headings in this Agreement are for ease of reference only; they do not affect its construction or interpretation.
- 10.3 Assignment: Neither party may assign or transfer this Agreement as a whole, or any of its rights or obligations under it, without first obtaining the written consent of the other party. That consent may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 10.4 Illegal/unenforceable provisions: If the whole or any part of any provision of this Agreement is void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement, and the rest of the void or unenforceable provision, will continue in force in that jurisdiction, and the validity and enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction will not be affected.
- 10.5 Waiver of rights: If a party fails to enforce, or delays in enforcing, an obligation of the other party, or fails to exercise, or delays in exercising, a right under this Agreement, that failure or delay will not affect its right to enforce that obligation or constitute a waiver of that right. Any waiver of any provision of this Agreement will not, unless expressly stated to the contrary, constitute a waiver of that provision on a future occasion.
- 10.6 No agency: Nothing in this Agreement creates, implies or evidences any partnership or joint venture between the parties, or the relationship between them of principal and agent. Neither party has any authority to make any representation or commitment, or to incur any liability, on behalf of the other.
- 10.7 Entire agreement: This Agreement and all schedules thereto constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that it has not entered into this Agreement on the basis of any warranty, representation, statement, agreement or undertaking except those expressly set out in this Agreement. Each party waives any claim for breach of this Agreement, or any right to rescind this Agreement in respect of, any representation which is not an express provision of this Agreement. However, this clause does not exclude any liability which either party may have to the other (or any right which either party may have to rescind this Agreement) in respect of any fraudulent misrepresentation or fraudulent concealment prior to the execution of this Agreement.

- 10.8 Formalities: Each party will take any action and execute any document reasonably required by the other party to give effect to any of its rights under this Agreement, or to enable their registration in any relevant territory provided the requesting party pays the other party's reasonable expenses.
- 10.9 Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed by the parties in counterparts and may be executed and delivered by facsimile or electronically by PDF and all such counterparts, facsimiles and PDF copies shall together constitute one agreement. The parties agree that facsimile or PDF copies of signatures have the same effect as original signatures.
- 10.10 Amendments: No variation or amendment of this Agreement will be effective unless it is made in writing and signed by each party's representative.
- 10.11 Third parties: No one except a party to this Agreement has any right to prevent the amendment of this Agreement or its termination, and no one except a party to this Agreement may enforce any benefit conferred by this Agreement, unless this Agreement expressly provides otherwise.
- 10.12 Governing law: This Agreement is governed by, and is to be construed in accordance with, the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein. The courts of the Province of Ontario will have exclusive jurisdiction to deal with any dispute which has arisen or may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement, except that either party may bring proceedings for an injunction in any jurisdiction.
- 10.13 Escalation: If the parties are unable to reach agreement on any issue concerning this Agreement or the Project within 14 days after one party has notified the other of that issue, they will refer the matter to Gay Yuyitung in the case of the University, and to the President or Chief Executive Officer or Director, as applicable, in the case of the Sponsor in an attempt to resolve the issue within 14 days after the referral. Either party may bring proceedings in accordance with clause 10.12 if the matter has not been resolved within that 14 day period, and either party may apply to the court for an injunction, whether or not any issue has been escalated under this clause.

SCHEDULE 2
USE AND EXPLOITATION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Option A – Royalty-free ownership, and reasonable mechanisms for incentivizing researchers. Used when it is difficult to determine the revenues from the exploitation of a particular piece of intellectual property as it contributes to a components in a larger product.

1. The University is committed to maximizing the societal, economic, and commercial impact of its research activities and seeing the results of its research commercialized by the Sponsor.
2. The University will own the Intellectual Property in the Results upon its creation. The Sponsor will have a non-exclusive, royalty free license to use all the Intellectual Property in the Results.
3. The Sponsor will give a written notice to the University (an 'Option Notice') at any time during the Project Period plus a further 3 months, of the Intellectual Property that they wish to own (the 'Desired IP'). The University will, upon receipt of an Option Notice, transfer the Desired IP to the sponsor within 90 days after the receipt of the Option Notice.
4. The sponsor agrees to negotiate with the University in good faith on ways to provide performance incentives to inventors, including the faculty, staff, and students, who contribute to the creation of Desired IP, based on the commercial success of the desired IP.
5. If prior to transfer of ownership the Sponsor wishes the University to apply for any patent in relation to any of the Results, the Sponsor will reimburse to the University the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the University since the date of this Agreement in relation to the filing and prosecution of that patent application, including (without limitation) patent agents' fees, as a result of any request to apply for, or to maintain, any patent at the Sponsor's request.
6. All the Results that are not Desired IP per clause 3 in this schedule after end of the project period plus a further 90 days will be unconditionally owned by the University for perpetuity. The University reserves the right to commercially exploit such IP.
7. In the event that the University's Background is required to exploit any of the Desired IP, the Sponsor may negotiate a license for such related Background on commercially reasonable terms.
8. In the event the Sponsor does not exploit the Desired IP within five (5) years of end of the Project, then the sponsor will transfer their ownership, and assign the right to commercially exploit them, to the University.
9. Despite the provisions granted under this Schedule, the University and each employee and student of the University will have the irrevocable, royalty-free right to use the Results for the purposes of academic teaching and research, including research projects that are sponsored by any third party. The rights in this clause are subject to the rules on Academic Publication in clause 5 of the Agreement.

Option B – Royalty-bearing exclusive license, where the royalty serves as a performance incentive for the inventors. This is used when the generated intellectual product yields a product in its entirety, and the product

1. The University is committed to maximizing the societal, economic, and commercial impact of its research activities and seeing the results of its research commercialized by the Sponsor. The University will own the Intellectual Property in the Results, and the Sponsor will have a non-exclusive, royalty free license to use the Intellectual Property in the Results and have a right of first offer to negotiate a royalty-bearing license to the Intellectual Property in the Results.
2. The University and the Sponsor will, if the Sponsor gives the University written notice (an 'Option Notice') at any time during the Project Period plus a further 3 months, negotiate the terms on which the University will grant the Sponsor an exclusive licence (with the right to sub-license) to use certain of the Results (the 'Licence') with the field of _____ (the 'Field').
  - 2.1 Following the University's receipt of an Option Notice, the parties will negotiate in good faith, for a period of up to 90 days after the date of receipt of the Option Notice (the 'Negotiation Period') an agreement for the grant of the Licence. If the parties are unable to agree the terms of a licence agreement within the Negotiation Period, the Sponsor's rights under clause 2 of this Schedule 2 will lapse.
  - 2.2 The royalty in the agreement formulated per clause 2.1 above is not to exceed 5% of gross revenues obtained by its commercial exploit.
  - 2.3 The University will not, during the Negotiation Period, negotiate with any third party with a view to granting a licence to use the Results or assigning the Intellectual Property in the Results.
  - 2.4 Until the earlier of the end of the Negotiation Period and the grant of the Licence, the University will consult with the Sponsor about making patent applications in respect of the Results. If, during the Negotiation Period, the Sponsor wishes the University to apply for any patent in relation to any of the Results, the Sponsor will reimburse to the University the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the University since the date of this Agreement in relation to the filing and prosecution of that patent application, including (without limitation) patent agents' fees, as a result of any request to apply for, or to maintain, any patent at the Sponsor's request.
3. In the event that the University's Background is required to exploit any of the Intellectual Property in the Results, the Sponsor may negotiate a license for such related Background on commercially reasonable terms.
4. In the event the Sponsor negotiates an exclusive license under clause 2 of this Schedule and does not exploit the Intellectual Property in the Results within five (5) years of end of the Project, then the right to commercially exploit them shall be reassigned to the University.
5. Despite the provisions of or any licenses granted under clauses 1 and 2 of this Schedule, the University and each employee and student of the University will have the irrevocable, royalty-free right to use the Results for the purposes of academic teaching and research, including (after the Sponsor's rights under clause 1 of this Schedule 2 have lapsed, but not in any other case) research projects that are sponsored by any third party. The rights in this clause are subject to the rules on Academic Publication in clause 5 of the Agreement.
